

José Toribio Medina Award Nominations

At the SALALM XXVI, the SALALM Executive Board Established the José Toribio Medina Award, to be made annually, if merited, in recognition of outstanding contributions by SALALM members to Latin American Studies. An award will be given for a monographic publication in each of the areas of bibliography and reference. The purpose of the program is to encourage and acknowledge truly superior accomplishments in research and scholarship. An awards panel reviews nominations and submissions, and recommends a recipient to the Editorial Board. The 2006/2007 Award Panel members are Ana María Cobos (Saddleback College), Tony Harvell (University of California-San Diego Libraries), and Richard D. Woods (Trinity University). The panel would appreciate receiving nominations and applications for outstanding bibliographies and reference works, and sources which facilitate access to research or contribute to the understanding, use, or development of Latin American collections.

The award may be granted to a distinguished monograph, published, or accepted for publication, within the three years immediately preceding the closing date for nominations (March 1, 2007). Reprints, translations or re-editions are not eligible. Selection is based on scholarship, style, and the importance of the contribution. The award, in the form of a certificate and honorarium of $US250, will be presented at SALALM LII in Albuquerque. Nominations and applications are welcome and should be submitted to:

Ana María Cobos
Saddleback College Library
28000 Marguerite Pkwy.
Mission Viejo, California 92692
USA

To be eligible for the 2007 award, an author must have been a member in good standing of SALALM since, and including, the membership year 2006/2007.

If requested to do so by the awards panel, authors are responsible for providing one copy of the work to the review committee. Such copies will be returned when the selection process has been completed.
